The earth, that is sufficent,
I do not want the constellations any nearer,
I know they are very well where they are,
I know they suffice for those who belong to them.

The source of man's unhappiness is his ignorance of Nature. The pertinacity with which he clings to blind opinions imbibed in his infancy, which interweave themselves with his existence, the consequent prejudice that warps his mind, that prevents his expansion, that renders him the slave of fiction, appears to doom him to continual error.

Dr. Margaret Sponseller, Director of Reading Clinic

The Reading Clinic at Bloomsburg State College provides clinical services for clients aged 5 years to 30–plus. It also provides the necessary training for Reading Specialists and Reading Supervisors. The Clinic is a year-round operation. The present clinic population has been drawn from a 9 county area.

The BSC Clinic began in 1968 under the direction of Dr. Margaret Sponseller. The clinic has been growing and can now accommodate approximately 40-50 clinicians. The clinic is the largest in Eastern Pennsylvania.

The BSC Clinic is open to all students and adults who need special assistance in improving their reading skills. Adults who are having reading problems often come to the clinic voluntarily or are referred by a friend. Students from the area schools are referred by teachers, parents, etc. Learning disability cases are also referred to the clinic.

The clinic also provides during the school year, services to the surrounding school district through the undergraduate clinic. The undergraduate students provide a one-to-one individual tutorial experience for children who need special help in reading.

Retrenchment

All that is gold,
does not glitter.
All those who wander,
are not lost.
The old that is strong,
shall not wither.
Deep roots are not touched by the frost . . .

J. R. R. Tolkien

Solitude, though it may be silent as light,
like light, the mightiest of agencies;
for solitude is essential to man.
All men come into this world alone and leave it alone.

Thomas De Quincey

Th s are poem that the earth
We fell them down and not we may record our emptiness Kahlil Gibran

The ignorant man marvels at the exceptional;
the wise man marvels at
the common;
the greatest wonder of all is the regularity of nature.

George Dana Boardman

Time it was.
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Simon & Garfunkel
